

Declare Healing on Meth in Our Communities There are solutions!

It's not too late to register for the
Wellbriety Movement Spring Leadership Conference

Taking a Stand Against Meth: Recovery is Possible

Come to Denver, Colorado from April 20-23, 2006 to your share experience, strength and hope for healing the harmful presence of methamphetamine in Indian Country.

Learn what's working in some of our communities and how it might work in yours. • Listen to keynote speakers from around the country share what their communities have learned. • Participate in ceremonies, talking circles, panel discussions and workshops. • Hear from our Circle of Elders and visit with them throughout the Conference. • Contribute to a special Healing the Healers segment: Men in Healing • Women in Healing. • Celebrate with a conference banquet.

2 CEU's of educational credit offered to Conference participants

Resist, Reach Out, and Recover to bring our American Indian and Alaska Native communities into healing from crystal meth! There are solutions.
